Test Setup	Conducted measurement (Front side)
A photograph showing a wooden desk with a keyboard and a computer monitor. The desk is positioned in front of a metal wall. A power outlet is visible on the wall, and a power strip with a blue device is connected to it. The floor is concrete.
Test Setup	Conducted measurement (Side)
A photograph showing the same wooden desk from a side angle. The keyboard is now on the desk. The metal wall and power outlet are visible in the background. The floor is concrete.
