Solder Board-Component View 2	 A photograph of a green printed circuit board (PCB) with various electronic components, including integrated circuits, capacitors, and connectors. The board is positioned next to a metal ruler for scale. The ruler shows centimeters from 1 to 20 and millimeters from 0.5 to 17. The board is set against a blue textured background.
Solder Board-Component View 3	 A photograph of a more complex green PCB populated with numerous components, including a large black heat sink, a silver heat spreader, and various surface-mount components. A white label with the number '234' is visible. The board is placed next to a metal ruler for scale, showing centimeters from 1 to 18 and millimeters from 0.5 to 16. The background is blue textured.
