Re: FCC Certification Declaration for Model: NC-ZWA-9734

Applicant: Nabu Casa, Inc.

Address: 8 The Green, Suite 12630, Dover, DE, United States, 19901

FCC ID: ZA8ZE03

We, Nabu Casa, Inc., hereby declare that the product model NC-ZWA-9734 contains Wi-Fi hardware functionality that is used only during internal development and testing.

In the final production version intended for market release:

- The Wi-Fi function is permanently disabled in firmware.
- End users cannot enable, access, or use the Wi-Fi functionality by any means.
- There is no user interface, configuration option, or documentation exposing Wi-Fi capability.
- The Wi-Fi function is not promoted or mentioned in any product marketing materials or user manuals.
- The product is shipped in a closed enclosure that prevents physical access to the Wi-Fi hardware.

As a result, the Wi-Fi functionality is not available to consumers and will not be active during the normal operation of the product in the field.

Sincerely,
