

Justification for no antenna gain information

FCC ID: 2A929-662607

As the antennas connected to the 6500 MHz transmitter are integral and the output power is measured as an EIRP, antenna gain information is, therefore, not required. Only radiated measurements are used to show compliance with the FCC limits for fundamental and spurious emissions.