Product Differentiation Statement

Our company offers two models of motor equipment as follows:

1. YKV24SAED-DB-Z
2. YKV24SAED-HB-Z

We assure that the wireless components of both models are completely identical, with only slight differences in PCB and structural appearance. The differences mainly include:

1. Number of Aluminum Body Apertures: The number of openings or holes in the aluminum body differs between the two models.
2. Length of Aluminum Body: The aluminum body exhibits varying lengths across the two models.
3. Structure of Driver Unit: The former features a dual motor dual output design, while the latter has a single motor dual output design.
