

The FCC/IC ID is printed on PC plastic adhesive label and designed to last the expected lifetime of the equipment in the environment in which the equipment is expected to be operated in. It is permanently affixed with permanent adhesive and is not readily detachable.

