

Models Differences Exhibit

Product description side by side:

Char-Broil Model: 14202004 (725 square inch cooking space) cooking space)

CharBroil 14202005 (1000 square Inch cooking space)

The smokers are identical outside and inside electrically. The only difference is the size of cooking space as shown with each picture. The regulatory label is not the marketing label, therefore using one regulatory Label for both these products will streamline the labeling process.
