

FCC and IC label location

This device complies with part 15 of the fcc rules and industry Canada license-exempt rss standard(s). Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

