Subject: Professional installation justification

To Whom It May Concern:

We, Creowave Oy, inform that the C-site R7 unit (FCC ID: 2AC52R73G, models R7-101 and R7-102) is intended to be installed only by a professional person.

The device is not sold to the general public.

The installation must be controlled by Creowave Oy or a dealer approved by Creowave Oy. Installation requires special training to make sure that the network parameters will be properly configured. Access to the parameters is password protected.

The unit, in conjunction with C-site S7, is used for data transmission located in oil and gas fields.

Only the antenna types listed in the User Manual is allowed to be used. Creowave Oy will supply the antenna as part of the unit.

Sincerely,

Teemu Vähäkangas

Vice President
