Regarding FCC ID label placement for this application (FCC ID: 2AENO-J1), Jolt Athletics Inc. wishes to place the compliance statement and FCC Identifier on the packaging and in the user's manual. This device is very small with mostly curved surfaces that would make it very difficult for placement of label with legible text (4-6 point font). Additionally, the material on the outside of the device is soft and subject to wear in the outdoor environments in which it is used. The regulatory information will be presented on the packaging in such a way that the user will see it immediately upon opening the package. The same information will be placed in our user's manual that users can access online even after they have discarded the packaging. Presenting the information in this manner will ensure that it is easily accessible and legible to the end user and that it does not wear off of the device after it is in the field.

Sincerely,
Seth Berg
