

LLW Enterprise, LLC

FCC ID: 2AI4G-TR-250DC-SS

Mode: xTR-250DC-SS-xx

Model Similarity: All models have same mechanical, electronics construction and components used, difference among them are the trademark and versions of the product.

The prefix (x), up to four characters, denote the trademark, which is for commercial purposes only and is not safety significant, such as A denote AMP, V denote VOLT and so on.

The suffix (-xx) denotes different versions of the product, it can be blank, or any combination of letters and numbers.
