A white tablet with a black border and a grid pattern, lying flat on a wooden surface. The tablet has a black border and a grid pattern. The grid is composed of a vertical line and a horizontal line, dividing the tablet into four quadrants. The tablet is lying flat on a wooden surface. The wooden surface has a light brown color and a visible wood grain. The tablet is positioned horizontally. The top edge of the tablet is slightly rounded. The bottom edge of the tablet has a small black port and a small black button. The tablet is a simple, minimalist design.
