The image shows the back of a DNP CX-D90H Card Printer. It features a large ventilation grille at the top, a smaller one on the right, and two options for a second grille (OPTION 1 and OPTION 2) on the left. A central control panel includes a display screen and buttons. Below the panel is a label with technical specifications and safety warnings. A red line points from the 'Model CX-D90H' text on the label to a red box on the left side of the page.
