Hello,
Share an important FCC message
分享一则FCC重要信息:
WASHINGTON, November 21, 2024—The Federal Communications Commission today proposed a $734,872 fine against Hong Kong, China-based smart home device manufacturer Eken for apparent violations of FCC rules that require the company to designate an agent located in the United States. In addition, the FCC's Enforcement Bureau is continuing its investigation into privacy and data security issues related to Eken and other Chinese equipment manufacturing companies. FCC Chairwoman Jessica Rosenworcel also announced an audit of hundreds of certifications that used the same U.S. designated agent information as Eken.

华盛顿，2024年11月21日——美国联邦通信委员会今天对中国香港智能家居设备制造商Eken提出了一项734,872美元的罚款，原因是该公司明显违反了FCC规定，要求其在美国指定代理。此外，FCC执法局正在继续调查与Eken和其他中国设备制造公司有关的隐私和数据安全问题。FCC主席杰西卡·罗森沃塞尔还宣布将对使用与Eken相同的美国指定代理信息进行数百个认证进行审计。

Please make sure that your company has a valid physical address within the United States, and that the provided contact information (contact person, phone number, email, etc.) remains valid. If you receive any official emails from the FCC, please respond promptly and notify us. Thank you.

请务必确保贵公司在美国境内具有实际有效的地址，提供的联系信息（联系人，电话，邮箱等）一直有效。如果有收到来自FCC官方的邮件，请务必及时回复并通知我们，谢谢。

Best regards,
Grace
