AMP80 Operation instruction:

Download app "IEAST Controller" on the mobile phone

After installation, plug in the power to AMP80, the green indicator led starts to flash, indicating that it is on.

When the green indicator led is always on, it means that the device has been started up. At this time, the device is in WiFi mode. Can connect the network by pressing the "connect" button about 3 seconds, you can complete the network connection according to the prompt tone. After successfully connected, can stream music through APP. You can control volume/switching playback mode etc via APP.

Press the "connect" button quickly, when the indicator led is in white color, it indicates that it is in AUX_IN input mode, and the device can stream AUX_IN input music.

Press the "connect" button quickly, when the indicator led is in orange color, it indicates that it is in optical input mode, and the device can stream optical input music.

Press the "connect" button quickly, when the indicator led is in blue color, it indicates that it is in bluetooth input mode, press the "connect" button about 3 seconds to connect the Bluetooth of mobile phone or other devices, once successfully connected then can stream bluetooth input music.

Other interfaces of AMP80 :
1. One USB port, you can find the USB device in the App and stream the music in WiFi mode
2. One infrared input interface, supports infrared remote control.
3. One RS232 port, supports external devices to control AMP80
4. One sub output
5. One 100m LAN port, supports wired network connection.

APP:

IEAST Controller
iEAST (International) Limited