

Justification for no antenna gain information

FCC ID: 2ANOS-S202A

As the antennas connected to the 60.7–62.9 GHz transmitter are integral and the output is measured as an EIRP, antenna gain information is, therefore, not required. Only radiated measurements are used to show compliance with the FCC limits for fundamental and spurious emissions.