To whom it may concern:

TAPCO, hereby requests a Permissive Change Class II of the radio equipment certification for the Radio 136377 certification number, FCC ID: 2ANWN-02ANWN. This product differs from the originally approved product in the following manor:

- (a) Associated digital circuitry. – No changes
- (b) Functional capabilities. – No changes
- (c) Antenna Characteristics. – Addition of 4dBi omnidirectional “puck” antenna to certification
- (d) Cosmetic differences – No changes

I do attest that the Field strength and/or RF Output readings remained the same or are lower than the originally approved product and that they did not increase therefore qualifying this product for this application type.

Sincerely,
