

A close-up photograph of a blue, curved electronic component, possibly an antenna, mounted on a black base. The component is positioned horizontally and is flanked by two black, cylindrical protrusions. The background is slightly blurred, showing a workshop or lab environment.

Size: 2*5.5cm

FCC ID: 2ARTRLX443330

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation