Test Setup	Power Line Conducted Emission (Front side)
	A photograph showing a white laptop connected to a circuit board on a wooden table. The background is a large, metallic, reflective anechoic chamber wall.
Test Setup	Power Line Conducted Emission (Rear side)
	A photograph showing the same setup from the rear. A white laptop is on a wooden table, connected to a circuit board. A white test rig is positioned behind the table, and a computer monitor and other equipment are visible in the background.
