

Label and Location

FCC ID on device enclosure:

The following warning statement is too large to fit on the beacon device, the warning statement is included in the user manual for the device.

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.