Create and Customize Training Plans

You can create your own training plans in the App with a few simple steps.
Step 1:

Open the App and go to the Workouts page. Click "Training Plans" to enter the plan creation page.

Step 2:

On the plan creation page, click "Training Programs" to create your program. Select workout and step types and set duration and intensity goals for each workout step to create a single training program.

Step 3:

Click "Create Plan" on the plan creation page. Set up the name and starting date of the plan to create a training plan. After setting weekly training programs, the App will automatically generate training templates according to your training cycle.
Step 4:

Once the training plans are synced successfully, you can check your daily training programs and training progress on the watch, which helps you to achieve your training goals.
