Records indicate that Glocerts Technology Inc is registered to do business in the State of California. Federal OSHA laws require all employers to provide a place of employment which is free from recognized hazards that are likely to cause death or serious physical harm to employees. Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970. 29 USC § 654. C.P.S., a third-party private entity, will prepare and provide a comprehensive written safety manual that will assist employers in complying with occupational safety and health standards issued by OSHA.

Violations of OSHA may result in the following fines and penalties pursuant to 29 USC § 666:

- (a) Willful or repeated violation: Civil penalty of not less than $5,000 and up to $70,000 for each violation may be imposed;
- (b) Citation for serious violation: Civil penalty of up to $7,000 for each violation may be imposed;
- (c) Citation for violation determined not serious: Civil penalty of up to $7,000 for each violation may be imposed; ... (d) ...
- (e) Willful violation causing death to employee: A fine of up to $10,000 and imprisonment of up to 6 months, or both, may be imposed.

It is essential that all employers maintain and prepare, in writing, an accurate safety manual that will protect their business from fines and penalties.

Congratulations on registering your business with the state of California. Your Articles have been filed with the secretary of state and are complete. You have one step left in order to attain your elective California Certificate of Status. Below is a form for your registered business. Please confirm the accuracy of the information below for your California Certificate of Status request.

A California Certificate of Status is issued by the Secretary of State and may be required for loans, to renew business licenses, or for tax or other business purposes. A certificate of Status certifies that your California business is in existence, is authorized to transact business in the state and complies with all state requirements. The Certificate of Status shows the official evidence of an entity's existence and provides a statement of an entity's status, current legal name and date of formation. The Certificate of Status bears the official seal of the California Secretary of State.
