RF exposure evaluation procedures and requirements (Portable device)

Routine evaluation is required for SAR for portable device if the output power is $> 60/f(\text{GHz})$ mW

Output power: 4.9mW (Worst case, 6.9dBm EIRP)

Conclusion: the average output power is below the threshold level of $60/2.478 = 24.21\text{mW}$.
According to this calculation based upon the description of the product's operation, SAR measurement is not required.
