Hi Helen,

Attached is a revised FCC ID label location exhibit and Bluetooth test report. Please replace the previously submitted files with these.

If you have any questions or need any additional information, please let me know.

Thanks,

Steve Petruska

Question #1: All EUT photos are requested to keep short-term confidential, but the FCC ID label format clearly shows the back of the EUT. Are you OK to show this photo? You may wish to remove the photo and replace it with a simple textbox to illustrate the outline of the device.

Question #2: A minor issue in the Bluetooth report (page 20): the limit of Carrier Frequency Separation refers to 20dB bandwidth data, which does not agree with the test data listed on page 22. Please update the test report.

Best Regards,
Helen Zhao
