Re: Form 731 Confirmation Number: EA732233 with FCC ID: AZ492FT4867.

Dear Miss Poole;

Motorola Inc., 8000 West Sunrise Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, herein submits its response to the 7th October 2004 for information in Correspondence Number 27772.

QA) Regarding your answer to question 2. Please readdress. The question asked about OCCUPATIONAL use under Part 22 "Public Mobile Services". General Population exposure limits apply to public networks.

RA) Per Rule Part 22.651, this device will be used for trunked mobile operations by licensees.

QB) Regarding your answer to question 3 and 1a, no vehicle size information could be located. It appears that an incorrect document was uploaded. Please readdress.

RB) Installation instructions consistent with the RF exposure evaluation are listed in the Product Safety and RF Energy Exposure booklet and the installation manual. These documents have been included in this response. The installation manual was submitted in our previous response however the document was large, which may have lead to incomplete uploading.

QC) Regarding your answer to question 10, the MPE and SAR evaluation were for a car. Please justify application for marine use.

RC) At this time, Motorola has decided to withdraw its application under FCC Rule Part 80. Please amend the form 731 to reflect this action.

QD) For fixed installation please provides appropriate antenna selection and installation instructions along with MPE justification.

RD) Fixed site installations are addressed in both the Product Safety and RF Energy Exposure booklet and the installation manual (section 1.4). Section 1.4 of the installation manual has been revised appropriately. These documents have been included in this response.

Contact me at (954) 723-5793 if you require any additional information.
