

Model PM725T Operational Description

The model PM725T is a radio frequency transmitter utilized to transmit radio frequency commands to a video sender. The device transmits when the user of the remote depresses any of the buttons. When a button is depressed, the 418 MHz pulsed RF transmitter transmits the appropriate pulse code to the video sender.