When you return to using an audio component, the audio plays at the volume you left it the last time you used that component.

Touchscreen

TIP Be careful not to scratch, crush, or apply too much pressure on the touchscreen. Do not store your device in a place where other items might damage it. Do not use harsh chemicals, cleaning solvents, or aerosols to clean the device or its accessories. Do not expose your device to extreme heat or cold temperatures.

- 3 Power: Press to wake up or turn off the screen. Press and hold to turn wireless services on and off or turn your device completely on and off.

Turn your device on/off

Your device's screen can be turned on and off separately from its wireless services (which are the Wi-Fi  app, Bluetooth®  app, and VPN  app). This means you can wake up the screen to use just the organizer features of your device (Calendar, Contacts, Memos, and so on) without turning on the wireless features. Also, when the screen is turned off, wireless services can be on.

Turn the screen on/off

To turn the screen on, do one of the following:

- Press the power button. Drag  up to unlock the screen.
- Press Center . Drag  up to unlock the screen.

To turn the screen off, press the power button.

NOTE Pressing the power button to turn the screen off also works when your device is placed on a Touchstone (sold separately).

Turn wireless services off (airplane mode)

Airplane mode turns off your device's wireless services (which are the Wi-Fi  app, VPN  app, and Bluetooth®  app). Use airplane mode when you are on a plane or anywhere else you need to turn off all wireless services. You can't browse the web, but you can still use apps like Calendar, Contacts, Photos & Videos, Music, Quickoffice® mobile office software, and Adobe Reader.

Do one of the following:

- Tap the upper-right corner of any screen to open the system menu. Tap Turn on Airplane Mode.
- Press and hold the power button and tap Airplane Mode.

When your device is in airplane mode, the airplane mode  icon appears at the top of every screen, and Airplane Mode appears in the upper-left corner of the screen in the Card view.

Turn wireless services on

When you turn off airplane mode, any wireless services that were on previously are turned back on automatically.

- To turn off airplane mode, tap the upper-right corner of any screen to open the system menu, and tap Turn off Airplane Mode.

When your device is in airplane mode, you can turn the Wi-Fi, VPN, and Bluetooth features on individually. Note that to make a VPN connection while your device is in airplane mode, you must first connect to a Wi-Fi network.

Shut down your device

Usually, turning your device off and/or putting it in airplane mode is sufficient for normal periods when you have the device with you but you're not using it. On rare occasions, however, you may want to put your device into deep sleep because you are not going to use it for an extended period. At those times, shut down the screen and wireless services completely by doing one of the following:

- Open Device Info  and tap Reset Options. Tap Shut Down, and tap Shut Down again.
- Press and hold the power button and tap Shut Down.

NOTE When you turn everything off, the device's alarms and notifications are also turned off.

To turn both the screen and wireless services back on, press and hold the power button until a logo appears onscreen.

Open an application in Quick Launch

Quick Launch is the bar of five icons that always appears at the bottom of Card view and the Launcher.

You can customize Quick Launch to contain the icons for apps you use most often. To open an application from Quick Launch, just tap the icon.

Quick Launch can display no more than five icons. You can change the order of icons (except the Launcher icon) in Quick Launch, or swap in whatever applications you like.

Use the menus

Most applications have an application menu hidden in the upper-left corner, which provides access to additional features. There is also a system menu hidden in the upper-right corner, which provides access to systemwide features such as wireless services.

To get the most out of your device, it's a good idea to familiarize yourself with the additional features available through the menus in various applications.

Use the application menu

The application menu contains items for the application you are working in, such as Preferences, Help, and other application-specific menu items. Help is available on the application menu of every application.

- 1 In an app, do one of the following:
 - Drag down from the upper-left corner of the device (above the screen) onto the screen.
 - Tap the application name in the upper-left corner of the screen.

- 2 Tap a menu item to open it. If a menu item displays a right-pointing arrow , tap the item to display the submenu for that item. If you see a downward-pointing arrow  at the bottom of the menu, scroll down to see additional menu items.
- 3 To close the menu without selecting an item, repeat one of the options in step 1.

Use the system menu

- 4 Dismiss/resize keyboard: Tap to dismiss the keyboard.
- 5 Enter: Tap to enter a line return (for example, in a memo or in an email message you are composing) or to accept information you entered in a field.

Enter uppercase letters

By default, the first letter of each sentence or field is capitalized and the remaining text you enter is lowercase. To enter other uppercase letters, do one of the following:

- Tap Shift  and tap the letter key. You don't need to hold Shift while you tap the letter key.
- Turn on Caps Lock: Tap Shift  twice quickly.
- Turn off Caps Lock: Tap Shift .

Enter symbols and alternate characters

There are several ways to enter punctuation marks and other symbols. Do one of the following:

- To enter a symbol that appears on a number key: Tap Shift  and tap the key. You don't need to hold Shift while tapping the number key.
- To enter a symbol from the symbol keyboard: Tap  to display the symbol keyboard, and then tap a symbol key. Tap  to return to the alphanumeric keyboard.

- To enter other symbols or alternate keyboard characters: Tap and hold any letter or number key to see the symbols or characters associated with that key. Tap a symbol.

Enter passwords

You can see each character of a password only as you enter it, so be careful. Be sure Caps Lock is off unless you need it. For information on how to enter characters, see Enter uppercase letters and Enter symbols and alternate characters.

Enter information in a field

You can enter information in a field by typing or by pasting previously copied information. The Text Assist feature works with all text fields.

To accept the information you entered, do one of the following:

- Tap outside the field.
- Tap Enter.
- Tap Next, Prev, or Tab in the lower-left corner of the onscreen keyboard. This accepts the information in the current field and moves the cursor to the next or previous field.

Select items in a list

Lists enable you to select from a range of options. Lists are different from menus (see Use the menus), which give you access to additional features.

Lists are hidden until you tap the currently displayed option for that list.

- 1 Tap the currently displayed option to open the list. For example, when creating a new event in Calendar, tap 15 minutes before to display the list of reminder options.
- 2 Tap the list item you want.

Save information

- On most screens, your information is saved automatically. When you close a screen, your info is saved at the same time.
- Your info is also saved if you minimize an app to a card in Card view and throw the card off the top of the screen to close the app.
- On screens with a Done button, tap Done to save your information.

Close applications or application screens

- In Card view, throw the card off the top of the screen. To close a card stack, you must close each card individually.

View and work with notifications

Notifications show up at the top of the screen to notify you of new messages, upcoming appointments, application updates, and more. Some notifications also display app controls, such as music playback controls, when you are not in the app itself.

There are several kinds of notifications:

Banner alert: This is a notification that appears in a small strip at the top of the screen. Some banner alerts appear as confirmation of an action—for example, that the battery is charging. Others notify you of an item you can act on—for example, an incoming email message. For these alerts, if you do not tap the alert after a few seconds, it becomes an icon in the upper-right portion of the screen. Tap the top of the screen or drag down over the icons to display the alerts as dashboard items.

Dashboard item: The dashboard provides an expanded view of all notifications you can act on. For example, you can tap a calendar dashboard item to open your calendar.

If the dashboard item has a number next to it, the number indicates how many items are included in the notification—how many email messages you have, and so on.

Some dashboard items enable you to perform multiple actions. For example:

- On a calendar dashboard item, tap the calendar icon to open Calendar in Day view with the event displayed, or tap the event name to open the event details screen.
- If an item's icon displays a number, tap the icon to open the associated app to the list view (such as an Email inbox), or tap the item itself to open that individual item (such as an email message).

To delete a dashboard item, swipe from left to right to throw it off the right side of the screen. If the notifications are stacked, swipe from the leftmost ("bottom") notification to dismiss all the notifications, or swipe on a single notification to dismiss just that one.

Pop-up notification: This is a larger notification that you can act on right away. Examples of pop-up notifications are calendar appointment notifications and alarms.

NOTE By default, if a banner alert or pop-up notification arrives when the screen is off, the Center button blinks. You can turn this feature off.

App controls: If you are listening to songs in Music and leave the app, the music playback controls remain displayed at the top of the screen. This lets you continue to manage music playback without having to go back into the app.

For example, suppose you want to set up your Google Talk account on your device. The last step in setup is to select all the other apps that you want to receive data from your Google account (besides Messaging, you can include Contacts, Calendar, Email, and Documents). After setup is complete, your device begins to download your messages and all data for all other apps you selected for synchronization.

Regulatory notices

This section contains the legal notices required by the regulatory bodies of your country.

United States

Federal Communications Commission Notice

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation.

If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver
- Connect the equipment to an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio or television technician for help

Modifications

The FCC requires the user to be notified that any changes or modifications made to this device that are not expressly approved by HP may void the user's authority to operate the equipment. The FCC has granted an Equipment Authorization for this model device with all reported SAR levels evaluated as in compliance with the FCC RF exposure guidelines. SAR information on this model is on file with the FCC and can be found under the Display Grant section of <http://www.fcc.gov/oet/ea/fccid/> after searching for FCC ID B94HHI29C.

Declaration of Conformity for Products Marked with the FCC Logo (United States Only)

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

- 1 This device may not cause harmful interference.
- 2 This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

If you have questions about the product or this FCC declaration, write to:

Hewlett-Packard Company, 950 W. Maude Ave, Sunnyvale, CA 94085

For questions regarding this FCC declaration, call HP at 1-281-514-3333. For general questions about the product, call 1-800-HP-INVENT (1-800-474-6836).

To identify your product, refer to the part, series, or model number located on the product.

Cables

To maintain compliance with FCC Rules and Regulations, connections to this device must be made with shielded cables having metallic RF/EMI connector hoods.

WARNING! Exposure to Radio Frequency (RF) Radiation. The radiated output power of this device is below the FCC radio frequency exposure limits. Nevertheless, the device should be used in such a manner that the potential for human contact during normal operation is minimized.

The exposure standard for wireless devices employs a unit of measurement known as the Specific Absorption Rate, or SAR. The SAR limit set by the FCC is 1.6 W/Kg. Tests for SAR are conducted using standard operating positions accepted by the FCC with the device transmitting at its highest certified power level in all tested frequency bands. Although the SAR is determined at the highest certified power level, the actual SAR level of the device while operating can be well below the maximum value. This is because the device is designed to operate at multiple power levels so as to use only the power required to reach the network. In general, the closer you are to a wireless base station antenna, the lower the power output. To avoid the possibility of exceeding the FCC radio frequency exposure limits, human proximity to the antenna should be minimized. This device has been tested and demonstrated compliance when Bluetooth and WiFi are transmitting simultaneously. The highest FCC SAR value for this device when tested for use at the body is 1.29 W/kg. This device must not be co-located or operating in conjunction with any other antenna or transmitter.

Battery replacement (for product with non removable battery)

Do not attempt to replace the rechargeable battery, the battery may only be replaced by HP Authorized Service Provider.

Canada

Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference, including interference that may cause undesired operation of the device.

L'utilisation de ce dispositif est autorisée seulement aux conditions suivantes : (1) il ne doit pas produire de brouillage et (2) l'utilisateur du dispositif doit être prêt à accepter tout brouillage radioélectrique reçu, même si ce brouillage est susceptible de compromettre le fonctionnement du dispositif.

These limits are part of comprehensive guidelines and establish permitted levels of RF energy for the general population. The guidelines were developed by independent scientific organizations through periodic and thorough evaluation of scientific studies. The guidelines include a substantial safety margin designed to assure the safety of all persons, regardless of age and health.

The exposure standard for devices employs a unit of measurement known as the Specific Absorption Rate, or SAR. The SAR limit stated in the international guidelines is 2.0 W/kg*. Tests for SAR are conducted using standard operating positions with the device transmitting at its highest certified power level in all tested frequency bands. Although the SAR is determined at the highest certified power level, the actual SAR of the device while operating can be well below the maximum value. This is because the device is designed to operate at multiple power levels so as to use only the power required to reach the network. In general, the closer you are to a base station, the lower the power output of the device. Before a device is available for sale to the public, compliance with the European R&TTE directive must be shown. This directive includes as one essential requirement the protection of the health and the safety for the user and any other person. The highest EU SAR value for this device when tested for use at the body is 0.434 W/kg.

*The EU SAR limit for mobile devices used by the public is 2.0 W/kg averaged over ten grams of body tissue. The guidelines incorporate a substantial margin of safety to give additional protection for the public and to account for any variations in measurements. SAR values may vary depending on national reporting requirements and the network band.
