Chris Lee, I still can not read the schematic. The FCC requires that the words in the schematic must be readable (can read the words). There are many places in the schematic that can not be read. I still can not read the schematic. Please send a copy of the schematic that I can read.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Chris Harvey

Hello,

I corrected our SAR measurement uncertainties.

I sent already the Schematic Diagrams at Nov. 16.

But I resend it.

Please find attached the files.

BTW TCB review take a long time.

I sent the report at Nov. 16.

But TCB comment is informed our now.

Speed it up, please.

Best regards,

Chris(Cheol-Goo) Lee.

ES Park,

I have reviewed the above referenced application for TCB Certification and find that the following items are needed in order to complete this review:

Please provide a more legible copy of the SAR Measurement Uncertainties Table and Schematic Diagrams.

Best regards,

Chris Harvey
