

A.036.00.A

This photograph shows a wooden stage or platform area. In the foreground, there is a large black rectangular object, possibly a speaker or piece of equipment, resting on a wooden surface. A blue computer monitor is visible at the bottom left. A white sign with the handwritten text "A.036.00.A" is mounted on the wooden floor. To the right, a microphone stand with a gold-colored microphone is positioned. The stage is made of light-colored wooden planks, and the background shows a dark wall and some electronic equipment.
