

FCC/IC IDs are located in silkscreen on the PCB in the battery compartment and are accessible to the user when the unit cover is removed. Cover removal by the user is required to change battery. Cover removal does not require a special tool.