

Bottom view.

The label is metalized mylar of a type that we have been using for approximately 15 years for serial numbers on our products. They have proven very durable and it is located between the rubber feet where it will not be abraded.

