To Whom It May Concern:

This is to confirm that Resideo Technologies, Inc. and its subsidiaries, including Ademco Inc. were spun off from Honeywell International Inc. in October of 2018 and Resideo Technologies, Inc. has since been operating as an independent publicly traded company.

We kindly ask you to update your records accordingly and to address all future business correspondence to Ademco Inc., or Resideo Technologies, Inc. Ademco Inc. and Resideo Technologies have a license to the Honeywell Home trademark from Honeywell International for a number of products, but are selling products under other brand names as well, such as Resideo, Braukmann and First Alert.

Sincerely,

Susanne Haas
