Questions and responses follow:

1. Please verify that the EUT cannot connect to a pc. If it can, then the FCC Rules require that it also be classified as a Class B pc peripheral, subject to either DoC or Certification.

Response: Confirmed; this device is not classified as a pc peripheral (feature is not supported).

2. Please specify the detector function used to perform radiated and RF conducted spurious emission measurements.

Response: A peak detected is used for radiated and conducted spurious emission measurements (same as radiated power).
