Summary of FCC request for additional information

There was a request for additional information regarding Motorola's SAR Test Report for Motorola portable cellular phone (FCC ID IHDT56JT1). The requested information is addressed below in the same numbering sequence received.

6. For Exhibit 6, 21653-1, GSM 1900 EDGE Bandwidth measurement right marker should be placed further to the right most peak, to capture the entire bandwidth. Please update marker placement and bandwidth value.

Response:

6. While reviewing the report, it was discovered that the GSM 850 and GSM 1900 bandwidth plots had the same issue. The new plots for GSM 850, GSM 1900 and EDGE 1900 are attached below.
