New Exhibit Type	File Name
Telecoil HAC Test Report.	IHDT56NG9 Telecoil HAC Report 25168-1 Rev A.pdf

The new test report reflects measurements taken on units manufactured as intended for volume production, and reflect a slight degradation in Telecoil HAC performance, resulting in a degraded rating.

Note that, as of this time, no device bearing this FCC ID has shipped into the United States, or any of its territories, and as such there should be no need to change the device’s model number.

Please contact me if you require any additional information.

Regards,
