Questions and responses follow:

1. On page 13/43 of the SAR report, the max body SAR is reported as having been measured with battery SNN5708A, however, elsewhere in the application this battery is listed as SNN5808A. Please confirm that "5708A" is a typo.

Response: "5708A" is a typo. A revised report with the correction (SNN5808A) on page 13/43 was uploaded on 06-03-2007 to the PC Test Website.

2. The Confidentiality Request refers to the EUT as a dual band device, but the remainder of the application does not support this. Please correct the request letter.

Response: The request letter was revised to indicate the correct band and uploaded on 06-03-2007 to the PC Test Website.

3. We note that the required HAC language is contained within the manual, but we received no HAC report(s). Please confirm that it is not your intent to obtain a HAC rating for the EUT at this time.

Response: It is not our intent to obtain a HAC rating for the EUT at this time.
