Re: Replacement request of Operating Instruction Manual for IRIDIUM[®] Subscriber Unit (ISU), Model No. 9522, FCC ID: IHDT6NJ1

Dear Mr. Gubisch,

Motorola, Inc., 600 North US Highway 45, Libertyville, Illinois 60048 requests that the original operating instruction manual (Exhibit 8) submitted for certification of the IRIDIUM[®] Subscriber Unit (ISU), Model No. 9522, be replaced with the attached version of the manual. The original operating instruction manual inadvertently contained Motorola Confidential Proprietary (MCP) information that is not customarily released or generally available to the public. Motorola is requesting this substitution since post-grant confidentiality is not typically provided for the operating instruction manual. The attached updated manual is basically the same as the originally filed instruction manual but with the proprietary information deleted.
