Hi Kyle and Scott:

Received revised test report. Please also correct Page 4 of 23 about emission designator. In the revised test report, it still indicates 16M0F3F.

Best Regards

Mike Kuo

Question #1: The emission designator listed on TCB application form is 16M0F3F. General Description file listed the emission designator as 8M0F3F. Section 8 of test report provided emission designator as 16M0F3F with Carson rule justification. Please verify the emission designator and provide revised Carson rule justification as necessary.

Best Regards
