RE: DECLARATION LETTER of User manual

To whom it may concern,

We, the undersigned, hereby declare that FCC ID: K44513100 (Model name: NXR-1700-E) used for repeater/base station, not in vehicle use.

Vehicle use statements in the user's manual were used in common with other models. It is not related to the NXR-1700-E model.

NXR-1700-E is sold to police stations, fire stations, and railway companies. It is not used in vehicles, but is installed in the mountains or on the roof of the building in urban area as a repeater/base station so that it can communicate with radio device over a long distance.

We sell our products by an authorized local dealer. This website provides local authorized dealer of KENWOOD, so general customers are not available to buy products. Website: https://comms.kenwood.com/en/where/#anc_02

Sincerely,
