

Product Description

1.1 Product Description

The Mole Map IV is a part of a pipe locating system.

The Mole Map IV This unit is a UHF receiver to be used as a remote monitoring system for a pipe locating system. The Mole Map IV receives data transmission only. The Mole Map IV is battery powered and operates at 464.500, 464.550, 469.500 and 469.550 MHz.

The pipe locator operates at 38 kHz is under FCC rules for intentional radiators. It is subject to the FCC requirements pursuant to the Verification equipment authorization under Part 15.213.