Diagram

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two

- (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and(2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.