Product Equality Declaration

We, Phonak AG, hereby declare under our own responsibility that the products listed below as "Hardware Equivalent Products" have an identical Radio Frequency (RF) part and are in all relevant parts and hardware construction identical to the corresponding Phonak "Products with basis Hardware". The following standards and/or technical regulations and corresponding test reports fully apply accordingly:

Standards

SPECTRUM: USA: 47CFR FCC Part 15;
Canada: RSS-210 Issue 8

The only difference between the basis product and the equivalent is a different set of features per performance level, different acoustical level, battery type and marketing product name.
