

Product description

The WMD33A is a wireless intrusion alarm system with the advanced microprocessor-controlled, low-current PIR detector incorporating an on-board miniature UHF transmitter to detect any movement in a protected area. The WMD33A provides versatile wall-mounted PIR detector employing adjustable lens and offering efficient protection patterns for commercial and residential applications, portable alarm receiver allows the user carrying the reported alert to anywhere in house if any intruder crosses or enters any protected zone.