Subject: Actiontec R3010UW vs. R3010UW(AP)

Dear John,

This letter is to confirm that our products 'R3010UW' - Wireless Cable/DSL Router and 'R3010UW(AP)' – 802.11b Access Point are identical in hardware design including PCB and layout. The only differences are the following components are removed from R3010UW:

1. The WAN port connector and the components that associate with WAN port including U13 chip, T3 transformer, RJ45 connector and C76/C77 caps; and
2. The PCMCIA slot and the components that associate with PCMCIA slot including J4 PCMCIA connector and U8 analog switch.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Thank you!

Sincerely Yours,

Angela Yao
