

Description of operation

The EUT is a Receiver of the Car Alarm. It can lock or open the doors of the car that it is installed by remote control (receiving the RF signal from it's associated transmitter). And if someone attempts to force to open the door or shack that car, it will alarm by making laud noise.