Dear Sir or Madam:

The following versions of the product have the same RF circuitry and enclosure. Both tracking devices were tested and have the same electromagnetic emissions and electromagnetic compatibility characteristics. The only difference between the two models is the non-conductive, plastic enclosure.

The devices are as follows:

Model Number	Description
TAG-010A	Asset tag used to track equipment within a facility
TAG-010B	Wristband tag used to track people within a facility

Please contact me should there be need for any additional clarification or information.

Best Regards,
