Subject: CyberTAN Technology Inc., FCC ID: N89-WM610M, Assessment NO.: AN05T4554, Notice#1

Question #1: The Test report indicated that this device is in mobile configuration. Please provide MPE calculation.

Ans: Please find the attached for updated:WM610-M_RF_Exposure(0216).

Question #2: The device is a 802.11b/g miniPCI card, which is not a end product. Please verify whether this applicaion is to obtain full modular approval. If this is the case, please submit a Full Modular Approval Application letter pursuant to FCC Public Notice DA 00-1407. Please address the eight requirements one by one.

Ans: Please find the attached for WM610-M_Modular Approval Letter(0216).

Question #3: The device is a 802.11b/g miniPCI card, which is not a end product. This product can not be sold to end-user directly. Please provide OEM installation guide. Please include the information how to label the host product when the device is installed inside the host device, RF exposure warning statement into the OEM installation guide. Since you classify this device as mobile device, the possible warning statement could be: "The antenna(s) used for this transmitter must be installed to provide a separation distance of at least 20 cm from all persons and must not be co-located or operating in conjunction with any other antenna or transmitter. "

Ans: Please find the attached for updated:WM610-M_User manual(0216).

Question #4: If this application is seeking full modular approval, please revise FCC ID label format, please also show how the host device will be labelled if the device is installed inside. This exterior label can use wording such as the following: "Contains Transmitter Module FCC ID: XYZMODEL1" or "Contains FCC ID: XYZMODEL1."

Ans: Please fidn the attached for updated: WM610-M_Label Format(0217)

Question #5: The device is a miniPCI card, but the user manual provided in the filing called this card "a Cardbus card", and ask the user to insert the card into Cardbus slot before installing the software. Please verify whether this is the correct manual for this device.

Ans:Please find the attached for updated:WM610-M_User manual(0216).

Best Regards,
Helen Zhao
