

This device complies with Part
15 of the FCC Rules.
Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1)
This device may not cause
harmful interference and (2)
This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause
undesired operation.

