To Whom It May Concern:

All previously certified Schlumberger MagIC 9000 Corded, RF, and IR Base terminals have telecom circuitry, which makes connections to PSTNs. However, the Base for the MagIC 9000 Mobitex is designed solely for recharging the NiCad batteries that are used in the handset.

To whom it may concern,

Schlumberger Technologies, located at 1601 Schlumberger Drive, Moorestown , NJ 08057, USA, is our customer in good standing and will be producing a Point of Sale (POS) terminal product which incorporates the RIM 902M radio modem module (FCC ID L6AR902M-2-O).

Schlumberger will be submitting an application for certification of the final integrated product with a unique FCC ID using their own grantee code. Schlumberger will submit SAR and ERP data for the final integrated product. For information about the radio modem module please refer to RIM's submission FCC ID L6AR902M-2-O.

In the past, this method has allowed our customers to integrate the radio modem module without repeating FCC part 90 testing or accessing RIM proprietary confidential information. RIM does not disclose proprietary confidential information about our products. Our FCC submissions are considered proprietary confidential information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our Senior Certification Engineer, Masud Attayi, at (519) 888-7465 x2442 or by email at mattayi@rim.net.
