WALMART HAS APPROVED THE ATTACHED PACKAGING AS TO AESTHETICS ONLY.
Walmart has not reviewed the attached packaging. It is the responsibility of the printer to ensure the packaging complies with labeling requirements (TPIPA) or the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) requirements. Walmart has not reviewed the packaging for compliance with the company's General Merchandise Label Guidelines, General Merchandise Packaging Guidelines, or Merchandise Testing Protocol. It is the merchant supplier's responsibility to ensure the packaging complies with these requirements. Any questions or concerns you have should be directed to Walmart.
ATTENTION
Please note this document is not press ready. Printers are responsible for color and content of enclosed prints. As a result, supplied electronic files may need modification to account for pre-press trapping, dot gain and press characteristics of the printing process. Please contact your printer for any specific requirements. If you do not have a file ready, please make your request to us. Color printed on packaging does not match with file. Note: Please note there is any problem, contact our responsibility to amend by the pre-press color separation logo file.
FILE IS BUILT AT 100% SCALE
NOTE
Walmart is not responsible for any agent or agency to examine and/or proof read all positions, proofs and press plates before going to press. Please note there is any problem, contact our responsibility to amend by the pre-press color separation logo file.
